

Where ideas work

Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development
Williams Lake

Wildlife Habitat Specialist

$69,900.80 - $79,791.25 annually plus 3.3% Temporary Market Adjustment

The role and work of the Wildlife and Terrestrial Ecosystems Section in the Cariboo Region of the Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development (FLNRORD) is to conserve and manage native species and ecosystems. The work involves a broad range of subject areas and functions including collecting and managing information on species habitats and ecosystems, species at risk, habitat conservation, management and restoration, and developing and implementing standards and guidelines related to these areas.

With over 200 different occupations available in 280 communities across the province, we offer exciting opportunities for your career. Come be a part of the BC Public Service, a Top 100 Employer that embraces diversity, health and career growth. For more information, please see What We Offer.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

Qualifications for this role include:

- PhD in biological sciences or related field, plus 3 years of related experience; OR,
- Master of Science in biological sciences or related field, plus 4 years of related experience; OR,
- Bachelor's Degree in biological sciences or related field, plus 5 years of related experience.
- Registered (or eligible) as a Registered Professional Biologist (RP Bio) in B.C. with the College of Applied Biology within six months of employment.
- Experience assessing and monitoring natural resources.

Related Experience must include two or more of the following:

- Experience providing scientific and regulatory advice related to landscape ecology and/or ungulate habitat to biologists, technicians, decision-makers and other agencies regarding biological impacts as a result of resource development;
- Experience managing complex and sensitive natural resource management issues/projects related to landscape ecology and/or ungulate habitat in a team environment with some demonstrated leadership experience;
- Experience in negotiating/mediating solutions in natural resource management related to landscape ecology and/or ungulate habitat with external and internal stakeholder groups;
- Experience developing and/or implementing provincial, federal, and/or local government natural resource legislation and policy related to landscape ecology and/or ungulate habitat.

For more information and to apply online by October 4, 2019, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/64195>

Attention: only applications submitted through the BC Public Service's employment website (see link above) will be accepted.